CRAZY HORSE'S SURRENDER.

The Hostile Chief and Band at Fort Robinson.

SMOKING THE PIPE OF FEACE.

Twelve Hundred Indians and Twenty-Five Hundred Horses.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.]

CAMP ROBINSON, Nob., May 6, 1877.
The long expected surrouder of Crazy Horse's band took place this afternoon at two o'clock. Lieutenant Clark, of General Crook's staff, met the party about seven miles north of the agency and was presented to Crazy Horse by Red Cloud. After smoking a peace pipe, Crazy Horse seated himself on the ground and "I want to shake hands while scated, because that means our peace shall last."

CURIOUS PRESENTS. He then presented Lieutenant Clark to the principal chiefs and head men who came up to shake hands. A war bonnet, scalp, shirt, popy and buffale robe were then given Lieutenant Clark as an earnest of good will, and the village resumed its march for the agency, arriving at the hour above mentioned

General Mackenzie ordered the surrendered Indians to go into camp on a little space below the agency buildings. First came Red Cloud and the company Indian soldiers in government service, next Crazy Horse and his warriors and finally the herds and pack animals. The lodges were soon put up, and the work of counting the Indians and taking away their guns

It is now dusk, and the work is not yet finished, but enough is known to give close figures. There are more than twelve hundred Indians under six chiefs-samely Crazy Horse, Little Hawk, Little Big Man,

THE CITY OF BRUSSELS.

No word has yet been received of the arrival at Queenstown of the steamship City of Brussels, which left this port on Saturday, April 21, having on board adian pilgrims to Rome and a number of Amer teans who joined the party during their stay in this city. General Newton, it will be remembered, was among those who joined in making the pulgrimage. Although the vessel is out sixteen days, and the friends of those on board are becoming alarmed, there is no reason to lear a more serious secident than a breakdown of her machinery, which might easily prolong her voyage a considerable time.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

After the Sunday morning inspection of the Russian Highness the Grand Duke Alexis, the call for prayers was piped over the flagship, and at ten o'clock the of the mass, according to the rites-of the Greek Church, commenced on the gun deck of the frients At half-past one P. M. His Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Constantine, Prince Steherbatoff, Prince Obolensky, Prince Bariatinsky and geveral other officers of the Svetlana went on shore. M. de Willamov, Secretary of the Russian Logation, called on His Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Alexis after midday. At haifpast two o'clock Captain His Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Alexis leit his ship for the shore. During the afternoon a large number of people from the shore roamed over the decks of the flagship, examining curiously everything they came in contact with A party of ladies and gentlemen visited the flagship and were entertained by the officers in the wardroom A larger crowd than usual were gathered on the docks curing the day, gazing at the Russian fleet, and quite an array of shoreboats hovered around the port gangway of the flagship.

THE BENCH SHOW.

Mr. G. de Landor Macdona arrived from Liverpool vestorday on the steamer Nevada. He brings with m Magnet and Ranger II., English setters; four retrievers, fox terriers, &c. The same steamer brought also a magnificent collection of mastiffs, the brought also a magnificent collection of mastiffs, the property of a Mr. Brown, of Liverpoof; also Mr. Lloyd Price's celebrated pointer Sapshot, and a number of other dogs. Several large kennels have airoady arrived and are quartered at the Garden, among them that of Mr. Josso Sherwood, of Edina, Mo, made up of setters, pointers, beagles, &c. Mr. Everett Smith, of Portland, Me., is here with his strain of native setters. Mr. L. H. Dilley, of Lake City, bea arrived with his champion pointer, Ranger, and a number of other representatives of his kennel. The St. Louis and Toiedo kennels are dee at six o'clock his morning; also that of Mr. Smith, of Strathroy, Canada. The Columbus Kennel City bases arrived yesterday. By to-night at least four hundred dogs will be housed within the Garden.

Catharine Klein, aged forty years, residing at No 859 Tenth avenue, left her home at an early hour yes terday morning. She was seen passing along Twenty. terday morning. She was seen passing along Twentyfourth street in the direction of the North River. At the foot of Twenty-feurth street a number of Russian sailors were on a float and heard a splash near by. Then the try of "Oh! save me!" was uttered in a tone as if from room one in despair. A rowboat was procured, and the body of a woman was found floating with the tide. It was taken on the float, and life was found not to be extinct. The woman was taken to the station house, and from thence removed to Believue Hospital. She became conscious at that institution and pave her name and address as that given above. She rejused to give the reason of her attempt to end her life. Several hours after her arrival at the hospital she expired.

ANOTHER CENTENARIAN.

Bridget Rush, aged 103 years, an inmate of St. foseph's Home for the Aged, died yesterday at that nstitution from injuries which she received the tay previous by falling down stairs, The decome to this country from gircland, of which she was a native, over twenty years age, and has resided with her grandchildren in this city until about a year since, when she was placed in the Home. Her memory did not latt her on account of her advanced uge, and she frequently spoke of the rebeling of 1709 and also of the trouble in Ireland fifty years later. She recognized the laces of her grandchildren and also her grandchildren at her budside just before her death.

LITERARY CHIT-CHAT.

The late Mr. Cobden left a diary of his visit to the United States two years before the civil war, and also a diary of the negotiation of the French Commercial

THE PROTOCOL OF THE CONFERENCE CONCERN-ING JUDICIAL PROCEDURE.

WASHINGTON, May 6, 1877. The following is the protocol of the conference and the declarations by the United States Minister to Spain and the Spanish Minister of State concerning judicial

The following is the protocol of the conference and the declarations by the United States Minister to Spain and the Spanish Minister of State concerning judicial procedure, namely:—

The protocol of a conference held at Madrid on the 12th of January, 1871, between the Hon. Caleb Cushing, Minister Pienipotentiary of the United States of America, and His Excollency Señor Don Fernando Calderon y Collantea, Minister of States of His Majesty the King of Spain.

The respective parties mutually desiring to terminate amicably all controversy as to the effect of existing treaties in certain matters of judicial procedure, and for the reasons set forth and representations exchanged in various notes and provious conferences, proceeded to make declaration on both sides as to the understanding of the two governments in the premises, and respecting the true application of said treaty Señor Calderon y Collantes declared as follows;—

First—No citizon of the United States reading in Spain, her adjacent islands, or her ultramarine possessions, chargod with acts of sedition, treason or conspiracy against the institutions, the public security, the integrity of the territory or against the supremo government or any other crime whatsoever, shall be subject to trial by an exceptional tribunal, but exclusively by the ordinary jurisdiction, except in the case of being captured with arms in hand.

Second—Those, who not coming within this last case, may be arcosted or imprisoned by order of the civil authority, for the effects of the law of April 17, 1821, even though the arrest or imprisonment shall have been so screeted or imprisoned by order of the civil authority, for the effects of the law of April 17, 1821.

Fourth—In consequence whereof, as well in the case, the accused shall eajoy for their defence the guarantees embodied in the aloresaid law of April 17, 1821.

Fourth—In consequence whereof, as well in the case, the accused shall eajoy for their defence the guiness of their counsel.

Fourth—In consequence whereof

Mr. Cushing declared as follows:-

First—The constitution of the United States provides that the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury, and such trial shall be held in the State where and crimes shall have been impeachment, shall be by jury, and such trial shall be held in the State where said crimes shall have been committed, or when not committed within any State the trial will proceed in such place as Congress may direct (Art, III. sec. 2); that no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless on presentment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land and naval forces, or in the millin when in active service (amendment to the constitution, article 5), and that in all criminal presentations the accused shall enjoy; the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have composory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor and to have counsel for his defence (amendments to the constitution, article 6).

Second—The act of Congress of April 29, 1790, chapter 9, section 29, re-onacted in the Revised Statutes, provides that every person accused of treason shall have a copy of the indictment and a list of the jury and of the witnesses to be produced at the trial, to be delivered to him three days before the takes place that in all such cases the accused shall be allowed to make his full delence by counsel, learned in law, who shall have free access to him at all seasonable hours; that he shall be allowed in his defence to make any proof which he can produce by lawful witnesses, and he shall have due power to compel his witnesses to appear in court.

Third—All these provisions of the constitution, and he shall have due power to compet his witnesses to appear in court.

Third—All these provisions of the constitution, and acts of Congress are of constant and permanen force, except on occasion of the temporary suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

Fourth—The provisions herein set forth apply in terms to all persons accused of the commission of treason or other capital crimes in the United States and therefore, as well by the letter of the law as invitue of existing treaties, the said provisions extent of and comprehend all Spaniards residing or being it the United States.

Senor Calderon y Collantes then declared as fo

lows:—
In view of the satisfactory adjustment of this question in a manner so proper for the preservation of the friendly relations between the respective governments, and in order to afford to the government of the United States the completest security of the sincerity and good faith of his Majesty's government in the premises, command will be given by royal order for the strict observance of the terms of the present protocol in all the dominions of Spain and specifically in the island of Chibs. of Cuba, In testimony of which we have interchangeably signed this protocol.

DYING OF STARVATION.

A FAMILY FOUND DYING OF HUNGER-WATCH ING THE BODY OF THEIR STARVED CHILD.

A case of destitution in a thickly populated portion of this city came to the knowledge of the police yesterday, which, in the distressing character of its de-tails, almost surpasses belief. In a house in Twenty-fourth street a family have for tion. Their story is a common one. Seven months ago John Brown came to this country from England, with his wise and two children. He was in quest of employment, and he located in No. 318 East Twenty-fourth street, under the belief that in this city a man of robust health and good adaptability for business would not fait to prosper. Months passed, however, and no opportunity for an engagement presented itself. His little means gradually dwindled away, and then when he had become weary of seeking for work in vain and was driven to despair at the thought of his wite and little ones waiting for the change in his prospects which never appeared, he shu himself up with them and awaited with resignation the late that seemed inevitable. The family had no friends to appeal to, and like many, they shrank from begging with a horror that even the paugs of hunger could not overcome. For the last four days not a morsel has entered the mouth of any of the family, and it was only when the little child, two years old, was found dead in its bed yesterday that the story of these people's distress became known. The police were notified and came to their apartments—poor ones they were—and there they found a haggard man watching over a wan, starving woman, who could not move, but who looked with a mother's instincts still apon the poor pailet where the little famissied child, and one that lingerod still between life and death, werelying.

The woman and the living child had to be removed with his wife and two children. He was in quest of en were lying.

The woman and the living child had to be remote to Believine Hospital, where they lie now in a criticondition, and the husband's wants were attended
